

ASSOCIATION LIBRARY

The library fills three bays of bookshelves against the west wall of the clock chamber at St Mary's Church, Bridgwater. A photograph of it appeared in the Bridgwater Branch newsletter in June 2010, and the newsletter can still be seen on the Association website. I am happy to admit members in person on Monday practice nights, but please make an appointment first, and equally happy to receive requests to borrow books, and other enquiries, send by post, telephone or e-mail to the address shown for me on the front page of this report.

Additions during 2010 have included four scrapbooks of bell-related newscuttings for 1989 to 2007, compiled and donated by Janet Smith; The Ringing World 1911-1940 on two DVDs; Big Ben, by Chris McKay; Order and disorder in the eighteenth century: newspaper extracts about church bells and bellringing, compiled by Cyril Wratten; and Bonfires and bells: national memory and the Protestant calendar in Elizabethan and Stuart England, by David Cressy. A full catalogue can, as always, be found on the Association website, or supplied on receipt of a stamped addressed envelope.
